

Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany

Yangon

Visa for Students (Section 16b Residence Act) Basic Information

- The German Embassy Yangon does not issue long term visas (for stays longer than 90 days) for other Schengen partners. For studies in other European countries, please contact the competent embassy of your destination country.
- As a rule, visa applications must be approved by the relevant foreigner's authority in Germany. The visa can only be issued when this approval has been received.
- The application should be submitted as early as possible, but no more than three months before the intended travel date. The processing time for the visa is usually four weeks but can take longer in individual cases. Please arrange an appointment by e-mail, info@rangun.diplo.de
- You can fill the application online or download a pdf version of the application form
- Please provide all documents in original with two copies unless otherwise specified. All documents and certificates not in German or English have to be accompanied by a notarized translation into English or German. Your original documents will be returned to you.
- Missing documentation will delay the procedure and can result in your application being rejected.
- The processing fee of 75 € is payable in USD in cash. This non-refundable charge is payable in USD cash at the prevailing Embassy exchange rate when applying. Students who have been granted full scholarships from German public funds are processed free of charge.

The Embassy reserves the right to request additional documents.

General Information

Foreign students who have been accepted by a German university (where applicable with a preparatory language course) or a preparatory college (Studienkolleg) can apply for a visa to study in Germany. You are advised to secure your admittance or acceptance from the university as early as possible.

- During your studies, you can take up student jobs to help cover your expenses.
- Upon completing your studies, you will have the opportunity to look for a job.
