

Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany

Yangon

Checklist for a German national visa - intended marriage –

- The German Embassy in Yangon issues visas to applicants living in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar. If you intend to get married and live with your fiancé/e in Germany, you need to apply for a national visa.
- The application should be submitted as early as possible, but no more than six months before the intended travel date. The processing time for the visa is usually eight weeks but can take longer in individual cases. Please arrange an appointment via e-mail, info@rangun.diplo.de
- You can fill the application online .
- Please provide all documents in original with one copy unless otherwise specified. All documents and certificates not in German or English have to be accompanied by a notarized translation into English or German. Your original documents will be returned to you once your application has been processed.
- The processing fee of 75 € is payable in USD in cash. This non-refundable charge is payable in USD cash at the prevailing Embassy exchange rate when applying.
- Missing documentation delays the procedure and can result in your application being rejected.

The Embassy reserves the right to ask for additional documents.
