Checklist for a German national visa - Employment-

- The German Embassy in Yangon issues visas to applicants living in the Republic of the Union of Myanmar.
- Persons, who have a recognized degree of higher education and a corresponding job offer from Germany, can apply for an employment visa at the German Embassy in Myanmar.
- Non-academic skilled workers with a recognized vocational training can also receive a residence permit to work in Germany in many technical and other areas.
- Extensive information is available on the official website for qualified professionals.
- Detailed information regarding the recognition of foreign degrees of higher education is offered by ANABIN, the information portal for the recognition of foreign educational attainment.
- Visas can also be issued for graduates to seek employment for a maximum period of six months. If a work placement can be found within this time, the local Aliens Authority (Ausländerbehörde) can issue the residence permit directly.
- The Federal employment Office is included in the visa processing and examines the application with regard to the prerequisites as specified by the employment regulations, among other things the compliance with the provision of the minimum wage legislation.
- It is strongly advised that a preapproval of the Federal Employment Agency is presented upon submission of the visa application. Your employer in Germany can help you with this.
- Please arrange an appointment via e-mail to info@rangun.diplo.de
- You can fill the application online .
- Please provide all documents in original with 1 copy unless otherwise specified. All documents and certificates not in German or English have to be accompanied by a notarized translation into English or German. Your original documents will be returned to you once your application has been processed.
- The processing fee of 75 € is payable in USD in cash. This non-refundable charge is payable in USD cash at the prevailing Embassy exchange rate when applying.

The Embassy reserves the right to ask for additional documents.
